

Facilitating Racial Equity Collaborative Second Annual Conference

Overcoming Racism: Recognizing and Challenging the Legacies That Oppress Us

October 29 & 30, 2010
William Mitchell College of Law, St. Paul MN

Nationally known speakers:

Dr. Antony Stately, Shakopee Mdewakanton Sioux Community
Rev. John Robertson, Vicar, Bishop Whipple Mission, Lower Sioux Reservation
Winona La Duke, White Earth Land Recovery Project
Dr. Eddie Moore Jr., Founder, White Privilege Conference

Participants will:

- Understand the challenges and benefits to having honest conversations about systemic racism, ongoing colonization, white privilege and white supremacy as manifested in and flowing from historical traumas resulting from the violence of colonialism
- Gain practical skills and tools for countering racism and for facilitating difficult conversations about race and racism
- Explore the unique challenges, possibilities and practical application of racial justice skills, tools and facilitation in their particular settings

Early registration: $75/day or $120 for both days. Online registration will be provided by the Minnesota Council of Nonprofits, www.mncn.org/events.htm Scholarships are available on need-basis. Kindly check the Overcoming Racism website for information. The Facilitating Racial Equity Collaborative recognizes that the Indigenous peoples of Turtle Island ("North America") are the rightful occupants of this land. Therefore, we feel indigenous people should have registration fees waived for the Overcoming Racism conference.

Organized by the Facilitating Racial Equity Collaborative, a loose collective of organizations committed to overcoming racism in Minnesota. For more info, go to www.overcomingracism.org/
