

Living the Sacred Trust: Boundary and Ethics Training

♦♦♦

United Church of Christ, Minnesota Conference

Minnesota Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church

- Look beyond the “do’s and don’ts”
- Explore the organic and dynamic nature of relationships
- Reflect on real-life boundaries, power and authority

Gain a positive framework and tools to help you negotiate and navigate the increasingly permeable boundaries of ministry and society, while maintaining the trust needed to effectively lead in your ministry setting.

This basic training satisfies the requirements of the Minnesota Conference Committee on Ministry.

Reverend M. Lynn Scott, the facilitator, has been ordained in the United Methodist Church for 26 years and is currently Director of Small Group and Family Ministries at The First Congregational Church of Eau Claire, UCC. She has served as a local church pastor, a district superintendent and general church staff with the Board of Higher Education and Ministry and directs Sabbath Way, LLC.

Who: Clergy and Lay Leaders

When: Thursday, April 19, 2012

Register: <https://events.minnesotaumc.org>

Brand-new training at a new low price!

Thursday, April 19, 2012 • 9:00 AM to 4:30 PM

Normandale Hylands UMC, 9920 Normandale Blvd., Bloomington, MN 55437

Registration due: April 4, 2012

Cost for lunch and materials for UCC participants:

$75 before April 4; $90 after April 4