

SPARK WARMTH WITH A GIVING JAR

What you'll need:

- Spark Warmth label (below)
- Markers
- Paper soup bowl with lid
- Stickers, gems, or other decorations

Instructions:

- Create cheerful Giving Jars:
- Decorate your Spark Warmth label with crayons or markers. Cut it out of this page.
- Write the name of the local food shelf to which your family would like to donate the money collected on the label.
- Take the cup home and use it alongside the "Make Room for the Hungry" mini-fundraiser to count all the great things in your life and collect coins each day to add to your cup.
- At the end of the week, donate the value of the coins in your cup to your local food shelf, either by online donation or drop off.

Mission of Organization

DOING GOOD TOGETHER. Week-Long Mini-Fundraiser

"Make Room for the Hungry"

Instructions:

- Set Your Table: Place an empty bowl or an entire place setting at your table to remind you of those who go without nutritious food each day.
- Start Counting: Every day, count something in your home according to the prompt on your calendar. Put a coin in the bowl for each item counted.
- Donate: At the end of the week, donate the money you collected to a hunger relief organization or your local food shelf.

MONDAY

Count how many pairs of shoes you have in your home.

TUESDAY

Count how many boxes of cereal (or breakfast bars) you have.

WEDNESDAY

Count how many books you have in your bedroom.

THURSDAY

Count how many stuffed animals you own.

FRIDAY

Count how many food items are in your refrigerator door.

SATURDAY

Count how many drawers are in your home.

Reflection questions:

- Why is it hard to picture what it's like to be hungry when you always have plenty to eat?
